MISS LISA SUYDAM BECOMES A BRIDE

paughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Suydam Married to Paul Renshaw.

SMALL RECEPTION HELD

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Suyam was married to Paul Renshaw of John H. Prescott of Sayville, L. I. The guerites and white peoples and there re clusters of these flowers on the father. She wore a gown of soft white draped with rose point lace and ed with a hem of accordeon pleated She wore a veil of tulle held in James A. Trowbridge, will be married estin draped with rose point lace and range blossoms. She carried a bouquet her husband, Frederick Gallatin, Jr., on May 21 last.

John Garvin won fame as a Yale var-

Steward. They were dressed alike in cestumes of white taffeta and net, the skirts forming a scalleped tunic over the net and finished at the girdle with a sash of palest blue and pink satin. They wore large brown leghorn hats trimmed with pink ostrich feathers fastened down to the brim and crown from the front to the back. They carried large bouquets of pink and mauve sweet peas.

Alfred Renshaw was his brother's best man. The ushers were Howard Price Renshaw, another brother; John R. Suydam, Jr., brother of the bride; Emlen M. Drayton, Gavin Hadden, Bache McEvers Whitlock and John Pea-

E. Suydam, Jr., brother of the bride; Emlen M. Drayton, Gavin Hadden, Bache McEvers Whitlock and John Pea-

After the ceremony there was a small eception at the home of the bride's parents, 414 Madison avenue. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Suydam, Mrs. John E. Alexandre, the Misses Alexandre, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Suydam, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Suydam, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Suydam, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hadden, Newton Rae, W. G. Cochran, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis, Mrs. William Manice, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Meilon, Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor Pyne, Mrs. J. Norton Winslow, T. Chesley Richardson, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Renshaw, Mrs. Howard Court Institute Shearn doubt. and Mrs. Alfred H. Renshaw, Mrs. How-Price Renshaw, Mrs. Cyril Dugcarried flowers. Robert Adsit of Burlington was best man and the ushers were Irving Reynolds of East Orange, Philip Bell of Burlington, brother of the bridegroom, and Harold Murdoch and Raymond Leffingwell of Boston.

Zimmerman-Wood.

Miss Charlotte S. Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold G. Wood of this city, was married to George T. Zimmerman yesterday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Arthur, in Pelham Manor. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wilmot Gateson. The bride was attended by two children, Marjorle Bratton and Raymond Owens. Eugene Balfour was the mond Owens. Eugene Balfour was the best man and the ushers were J. R. Kil-patrick and Kenneth Mygatt. When return from a wedding trip Mr. Miss Lisa Cochran Suydam, only and Mrs. Zimmerman will live in Brook

Bidwell-Almy.

Heavenly Rest. The marly was performed by the Shipman, rector of the was assisted by the Rev.
bott of Sayville, L. I. The rch was decorated with palms, mar-cliffe and of Oxford.

MRS. GALLATIN SOON TO WED.

John Garvin to Marry Divorced Wife of Frederick Gallatin.

place by a wreath of orange blossoms and it fell over a court train of white satin which was embellished with

The bridal attendants were Mrs. Rieman G. Duval and Miss Katherine of Alfred G. Vanderbilt at Yale. Francis A. Garvin, former District Attorney of New York city and now a law part-

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hotchkiss of this city have announced the engage-ment of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Norton Hotchkiss, to Walter Stuart Marsden, Jr., of Hartford, Conn. No date has been set for the wedding.

Supreme Court Justice Shearn denied

"Et tu. Brute!"

Mrs. Herry James.

Mrs. Herry Ja

an open air performance of "She Stoops to Conquer."

Among the old graduates who are expected in this week is Gen. H. G. Gibson of the class of '47, the oldest living

WEST POINT PLEBES

GIVE RECORD DRILL

Third Day of Commencement Week.

FORDHAM GRADUATES SUN TOO GALLANT TO LARGEST LAW CLASS

92 Students Receive Degrees-Fine Gymnastics a Feature of Highest in History of the University.

Fordham University law school grad-COAST DEFENCE IS SHOWN uated ninety-two seniors last night in the college auditorium. Besides having the degree of bachelor of laws conthe degree of bachelor of laws continued the degree of bachelor of the degree of bachelor of laws conferred upon them more than one-third of the class already claim degrees in arts and sciences from other colleges.

The class was the largest Fordham

The class was the largest Fordham

The class was the largest Fordham day developed into an ideal afternoon men, who have been plebes for a year and are soon to yield that honor to the and guests of honor were entertained by which began on the campus shortly and are soon to yield that honor to the newcomers, due next Monday, were marched to the gymnasium, where they participated in a drill in gymnastics under the direction of Capt. Herman J. Koehler, master of the sword. The dumbbell and Indian club drill was without question the best exhibition of the kind are signed as the classes separately. The morrow evening.

Heretofore the exercises the graduates with class reunions, the ceremonies, with class reunions, the cremonies, and graduate the president in the new alumni quarters. Heretofore the departments of law and medicine have held their graduation exercises together, but the schools have a so grown in numbers that it was decided to graduate the classes separately. The main building. Then came the members of the sophomore class. Miss without question to the graduation of the graduation of the graduation of the sophomore class. The honors of the graduating class is formed by the president in the new alumni quarters. Lead by Miss Julia Parker of Hyde Park, marshal of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from members of the sophomore class. Miss belief the president in the new alumni quarters. Lead by Miss Julia Parker of Hyde Park, marshal of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from members of the sophomore class. Miss belief the president in the new alumni quarters. Lead by Miss Julia Parker of Hyde Park, marshal of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from the members of the sophomore class. Miss belief the president in the new alumni quarters. Lead by Miss Julia Parker of Hyde Park, marshal of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from the members of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from the procession started from the members of the sophomore class the daisy chain procession started from the beeted in this week is Gen. H. G. Gibson of the class of '47, the oldest living graduate of the academy. Gens. Horace Porter '60, J. M. Wilson '60, Charles F. Roe '68, E. M. Weaver and Tasker H. Bliss '15, Hugh L. Scott '75, and George W. Goethals '80 are also among those expected. Five divisions in the south barracks have been set aside for the "old grads," who will occupy the rooms during the balance of the Week.

Richard B. Greenwood.

Alumni headquarters has been established in the administration building on the hill. To-morrow's events include an athletic meet on the plains at 9 in the morning, with a heavy artillery drill in the afternoon. Evening parade will conclude the day's programme.

M. Greenwood, S., Or the Brooklyn and we profit with which he was connected continuously for forty years, died Monday night at the Methodist Hospital following an operation. He served as Lieutenant in the Twenty-second Registration in the civil war. At the close of the war he was graduated from the Columbia law school and admitted to the bar. For a few years he engaged in business in Chicago and in 1873 returned to Brooklyn and took up his law practice. His home for several years had been at 122 Winthrop street. Flatish. He was past commander of James an athletic meet on the plains at 9 in the morning, with a heavy artillery drill in the afternoon. Evening parade will conclude the day's programme.

PRINCETON PLANS BIG WEEK.

SPOIL DAISY CHAIN

He Sulks on Vassar Class Day Morning, but Smiles on Afternoon Parade.

busy one for the cadets and the many sightseers who are here for the exercises, which included the cluster in the courses nine years ago.

As the evening law school was started time honored daisy chain procession.

As the evening law school was started time honored daisy chain procession.

ochier, master of the sword. The umbbell and Indian club drill was ithout question the best exhibition of is kind ever given at West Point. In the physical tests just finished ladet Thomas B. Larkin of the graduating class who hails from Buckeys in the State of Washington, was declared the strong man of the corps. Larkin played for four years as substitute tackie on the Army football team.

Following the gymnastic drill the members of the first and third classes participated in the seacoast defence drill, where the six inch rifles and twelve inch mortars were brought into play. The cadets of the first class did all the plotting, the guns being handled by the yearlings or third class men.

In the afternoon at 4 o'clock except to the colors and battalion infantry drill was held on the grass plain. F Company of the Battalion of Cadets was in charge of the colors.

Evening parade at 6 o'clock brought on the slope adjacent to the battle on the same and the sound of the slope adjacent to the battle of the same of the slope adjacent to the battle of the same of the slope adjacent to the battle of the slope adjacent to the pattle of the slope adjacent to the battle of the slope adjacent to the pattle of the slope adjacent to the slope adjacent to the pattle of the slope adjacent to the slope adjac

Smith, Theodora Smith, Katharine Mc-Afee, Dorothy Copenhaver, Anne Gard-ner, Laura Stilson, Isabel Forman, June Assistant Corporation Counsel Richard B. Greenwood, 68, of the Brooklyn law department, with which he was controlled to the Controlled Controll